

Rent-A-Center – Regulatory Framework Disclosure

Rent-A-Center works within the regulatory framework at the federal and state level to provide credit challenged customers access to products with transparency and the ability to return products with no future obligation. The Company has a longstanding working relationship with California regulators for over 20 years protecting rent-to-own consumers with detailed price controls, collection practices, and mandatory disclosures with oversight by the California Attorney General's office. Rent-A-Center will continue to follow these comprehensive laws regardless of which state agency is tasked with oversight. Less than 2% of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA is generated from stores in California.
